

1 Vocabulary Worksheet

BOOK REVIEW

1 Choose the correct answer.

- Some people find horror / autobiography stories too scary.
- Science novel / fiction books look at what the world might be like in the future.
- Most crime / romance novels have at least one detective.
- A graphic novel / biography is full of illustrations.
- A romance / historical novel is always set in the past.
- A(n) autobiography / biography is written by the same person the book is about.

2 Match the parts of the sentences.

- Frankenstein* is a well-known horror F
 - It was written _
 - It was published _
 - The main character _
 - Much of the story is set _
 - The author often refers _
 - My favourite part is when _
 - I recommend _
- A in 1818.
 B the creature comes to life.
 C in Geneva in Switzerland.
 D is a scientist called Victor Frankenstein.
 E Mary Shelley's short stories, too.
 F story about a monster.
 G to the monster as 'the creature'.
 H by Mary Shelley.

THINGS WE READ

3 Complete the words in the sentences.

- Have you seen this f/ye r about a new sports centre in town?
- There's a lot of choice on the lunchtime m __ u.
- I need to buy a gr __ t __ s c __ d for my grandma. It's her birthday.
- Tessa just bought a new coat from the autumn / winter c __ alo __.
- Are you going to watch the pr __ r __ e on graphic novels tonight on TV?
- Andrew is writing a b __ g about his travels around the world.

4 Complete the sentences with the words below.

advertisement blurb
 diagram instructions note

- There's a really funny advertisement for cat food out at the moment!
- I can never follow simple _____ to build a piece of furniture.
- Sorry, Dad! I didn't buy any milk because I didn't see your _____.
- Anita, please help me to draw this _____ for my maths homework.
- The _____ on this book makes it sound really interesting.

VERB ZONE

5 Choose the correct answer.

- This book is so good, I can't put it through / down!
- In the book, we see Tom grow / bring up and become an adult.
- I've only read on / flicked through the book so far, but I can see that it's a great science fiction story.
- I'm sorry to bring up / put down the subject, but have you still got my Charles Dickens book?
- Rebecca is determined to get / read on to the very end, even if she has to stay up all night!

1 Vocabulary Worksheet

BOOK REVIEW

1 Complete the sentences.

- I enjoyed reading the ex-president's autobiography.
- The Swiss Family Robinson* is an excellent adventure s_____y for children.
- My dad loves reading science f_____n stories.
- Zara has just finished reading a non-f_____n book about the first ascent of Mount Everest.
- Don Quixote* is a classic n_____l by Miguel de Cervantes.
- Graphic n_____s are very popular in Japan.

2 Choose the correct answer.

Frankenstein is a ¹ horror story / non-fiction book about a monster that was created by a scientist. The novel was ² written / wrote by Mary Shelley. It ³ was published / published in 1818. Much of the story is set ⁴ in / to Geneva, in Switzerland. The ⁵ main character / plot is a scientist called Victor Frankenstein. He creates a monster, who the author often refers ⁶ after / to as 'the creature'. My ⁷ point of view / favourite part is when the creature comes to life. I ⁸ recommend / refer Mary Shelley's short stories, as well as Frankenstein. They're very different.

THINGS WE READ

3 Complete the sentences with the words below. There are three you don't need.

advertisement blog blurb catalogue flyer greetings card menu message programme

- Have you seen this flyer about a new sports centre in town?
- The lunchtime _____ isn't usually as extensive as the evening one in this restaurant.
- I must buy a _____ for my grandma. Last year, I forgot to send one, and she was a bit upset.
- I've just received the autumn / winter _____ in the post. I'm looking forward to choosing something from it.
- Are you going to watch the TV _____ on graphic novels tonight?
- Some people write a _____ about their travels, but it isn't something that appeals to me.

4 Match two boxes each time to make words. Then complete the sentences.

advert	chures	bl	bro	instruc tions	isement	te	not	urb
gram	no	card	greetings	ice

- There's a really funny fast food advertisement out at the moment! I saw it at the cinema yesterday.
- Sally chose the book because the back cover _____ made it sound really interesting.
- Mum has just picked up some new holiday _____. I hope we're going somewhere exciting!
- Why are _____ to build furniture always so complicated? I can never follow them!
- Sorry, Dad! I didn't buy any milk because I didn't see your _____ on the kitchen table this morning.
- Look, there's a _____ on the wall about our school concert. I hope loads of people come.
- Anita, please help me to draw this _____ for maths. It's really complicated.
- Toby received a _____ in the post from his uncle in Germany.

VERB ZONE

5 Choose the correct answer.

- This book is so good, I can't put it through / down / on!
- In the book, we see Tom grow / put / bring up and become an adult.
- I've only read on / flicked through / put down the book so far, but I can see that it's a great science fiction story.
- I'm sorry to read on / bring up / put down the subject, but have you still got my Charles Dickens book?
- Rebecca is determined to flick / get / read on to the very end, even if she has to stay up all night!