WORLD BOOK DAY IN THE UK

1 Listen and read.  2.50

Hello! I'm Dylan from the UK. My favourite festival is World Book Day!

In the UK, World Book Day is in March. At my school, children wear costumes of their favourite characters from books. There are wizard, superhero and fairy costumes. It's fun! The teacher takes photographs and gives every child a book token. We can buy a book with the book token.

In the morning, we talk about our favourite books. We write stories and make bookmarks. When my teacher says "ERIC!", we sit and read for twenty minutes. ERIC means Everyone Reads In Class.

In the afternoon, we visit a library and look at the books. There are storybooks, joke books and comic books. There's a famous author at the library. She reads a story. Then we ask questions. It's interesting.

2 Ask in pairs.

- 1 Do you like detective stories?
- 2 Do you like ghost stories?
- 3 Do you like joke books?
- 4 Do you like comic books?
- 5 What's your favourite book?
- 6 Have you got a favourite author?

3 Talk about your favourite book. Then make a bookmark.

My favourite book is Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. The author is Roald Dahl. My favourite character is Willy Wonka.
